Profile

During the recent Pandemic I took the time to sharpen my web development skills. I have completed multiple bootcamps from Udemy, and have a wide range of projects that showcase my skills. As a Self taught Web Developer, I've accumulated an in depth knowledge of HTML, CSS, Javascript and React. I am committed to maintaining my technical skills and keeping up to date with industry knowledge. I am highly motivated, and I am looking to transition into a role where I can contribute my knowledge and grow within a company. I am a good communicator, I collaborate well with others, and I'm comfortable working under tight deadlines in fast paced environments.
